A1: Db

i see people on the corner holding their signs, people in the road forming a picket line Gb
want the world to know they're here, trying to make their message clear Db
i honk for peace and hear them cheer, watch them smile in my rearview mirror Gb
keep on driving, just pass on by, i honk again at the next sign

B2: Ab/C Gb

it's hard to face reality so i'll keep dreaming of peace it's plain to see we don't have the answers, but we think we know and so it goes Db Gb Bbm Gb

it's plain to see we don't have it together, but we think we know, so it goes on

A2: students in the green arms intertwined, candles lit swaying side to side show the world that we're aware, but we aren't going anywhere i can't remember which petition i signed, but i sleep pretty well each night knowing that i've done their share, in showing everyone i care while we're standing in the streets, they're fighting off disease

Bbm Gb Ab
i'm in the comfort of our bed, not dealing with a shred of Db Gb
this war between nations and this war against nature Bbm Gb Bbm
it's a battlefield that i've never seen
